1. Introduction

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the Act) the Council has a duty to adopt and maintain a Publication Scheme (the Scheme) setting out:

- The classes of information it publishes
- How and where information is published
- Whether a charge is made for information

The aim of the Scheme is to set out what information is automatically or routinely published by the Council. This is to ensure that as much information as possible which may be of interest to the Public, is available without the need for specific requests to be made.

Obtaining Information

The information listed in this Scheme is supplied free of charge and can be accessed from the Council's web-site at: <http://www.south-derbys.gov.uk/>

Where applicable, the appropriate link is highlighted in this Scheme to the category of information listed. Where this is not the case, the Scheme sets out where and how the information can be accessed.

Freedom of Information Requests to the Council should be made to FOI@south-derbys.gov.uk

Classes of information

This Scheme details information that can be readily accessed; this covers the categories summarised in the following table, with further details contained in the numbered sections which follow.

Section	Category	Type of information
2	Details about the Council	The Council's Constitution, organisational information, structures, policies and procedures.
3	The Council's Finances	Information on the cost of services, financing, audit reports, pay, pensions, contracts and invoice payments.
4	The Council's priorities and service performance	The Corporate Plan, Annual Reports, the main service plans and strategies.

5	How the Council makes decisions	Details about Committees, the Council's Constitution and communications.
6	Lists and Registers that the Council is required to maintain	This includes licensed premises, contaminated land and community assets.
7	Services provided	A summary of the Departmental structure, together with details of the main services provided by the Council.

Exemptions

Although the Act creates a general right of access to information, it also sets out exemptions. This relates to information that if published, might prejudice the health, safety or security of the Council, its staff, systems, services and property.

If the Council feels that information is exempt, it will rely on one of the provisions in the Act to decline a request for information. The requester has the right of appeal under the Council's internal procedure, details of which are available at: http://www.south-derbys.gov.uk/council_and_democracy/data_protection_and_freedom_of_information/default.asp

If after the appeal, the information is still not disclosed to the satisfaction of the requester, they can ask the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) to review the decision. The ICO is the Government department that oversees and enforces FOI and can be contacted at: <https://ico.org.uk/>

Data Protection

A significant amount of information that the Council holds is personal and confidential to individuals. This information is not generally available under a FOI request.

Under the Data Protection Act 1998, the Council has a duty to safeguard such information. Individuals have a right to see what information the Council holds on them personally through a Subject Access Request. Details on how to request this information is available at: http://www.south-derbys.gov.uk/council_and_democracy/dataprotection/information_held/default.asp

Charges for Information and Requests

It is not the Council's intention to charge for information requests and it is rare to do so. However, where the administrative burden is considered to be excessive in order to answer a request, then the Council reserves the right to charge. In this case, a charge will be made for disbursements such as printing and administrative time, where costs exceed £500.

Management of the Scheme

The Council Officer responsible for adopting and maintaining the Scheme is the Director of Finance and Corporate Services. This Officer is also the Council's nominated Data Protection Officer.
